IRBY

I. Edmund Irby 1675-1733, Parish of Martin's Brandon, Pr. George Co. married ca. 1723, Anne Blunt, dau. of Thomas Blunt, Surry Co. This was Edmund Irby's second marriage.

II. John Irby of Sussex Co., 1715-1761, m. Mary Blunt b. March 25, 1717-d. March 20, 1774. She was a dau. of Richard Blunt of Surry and granddau. of Thomas Blunt and his wife, Priscilla Browne, dau. of Col. William Browne of Four Mile Tree.

III. William Irby b. Oct. 29, 1752-d. Dec. 5, 1811, moved to Nettoway Co. 1780 and built Pleasant Hill, where his children were born, where he died and was buried. His was the life of a busy planter; at Pleasant Hill the best traditions of old Virginia were held sacred. On Jan. 9, 1781, William Irby m. Jane Edmunds, b. Dec. 13, 1761-d. Oct. 13, 1782, dau. of John Edmunds, long Burgess for Sussex Co.

IV. Edmund Irby, b. ev. 1, 1781-d. Aug. 19, 1829; married Feb. 19, 1807, Frances Briggs Lucas, b. March 7, 1738-d. Feb. 17, 1846, dau. of John Lucas of Greenville Co. On "Battles" plantation, given him by his father Edmund Irby built a new house and changed the name to Poplar Hill. Here he and his wife entertained lavishly, especially when the Bellefonte Races were held a few miles away. This was a noted track in those days and Edmund Irby raised fine horses and ran them.

Among their distinguished guests, none received a warmer welcome than that Va. statesman, John Randolph of Roanoke, who, in his will, devised Edmund Irby "the next choice of my horses and any one of my horses or colts to be selected by himself". He said Edmund was "the best farmer in Va."; very probably he was the wealthiest of all the Nettoway Irbys, a large land and slave owner.

V. Benjamin Irby, b. Sept. 1, 1820-killed in battle at Selma, Ala., April 2, 1865. He and two of William Blunt Irby's sons went south. On Oct. 18, 1853, Benj. Irby m. Henriette Fitzhugh Anderson, b. July 1, 1830-d. Dec. 26, 1897 at Beaumont, Texas. She was a dau. of Nathaniel Anderson and his wife, nee Aldred Digges Moon, formerly of the same place.

Note.

From court and Bible records, long treasured by the Nettoway Irbys, at the request of the family, Mr. W.R. Turner, friend and genealogist, has compiled an Irby chart and placed a copy in the Va. State Library. From Turner's chart, the above was made and certified by court records, as far as possible.

The book containing the will of Edmund Irby(I) has been destroyed since the Irbys copied the will and with the book, very probably, went the name of his first wife.

1. William Irby m. 3 times, each wife member of a prominent family in her community. His home - Cedar Circle, Lunenburg Co. Had 12 children, 2 d. in infancy.
When Frances Lucas Irby died, her land was divided among her sons. Both of her daus. were dead.

Surry County Marriage Bond.

Jan. 4, 1781-William Irby and Jane Edmunds, spinster; William Blunt, guardian for Jane Edmunds, wrote the note of consent, witnesses - Lemuel Cocke and Nathan Jones.

This must be the date the license was issued, the Irby chart certainly gives Jan. 9th as the date of the marriage.

Dear Mrs Chapman:

Your letter to Rev. Wm. Doby has been referred to me, and I will try & give you what information I can in regard to our branch of the Doby family -

The Halifax Branch of the Doby's I think are of the same family, but I have only our line, although I think Charles Doby went from Amelia to Halifax, and when my great grand father Edmund Doby died he had a good deal of property in Halifax County. The Charles Doby above mentioned was quite a prominent man in Amelia County, being a colonial justice & also sheriff of the County (Amelia) & was the
